Don't spell part backwards ... It's a trap

A Domino's Pizza employee went above and beyond to brighten a customer's day. According to a social media post by Domino's Australia, their store in Coolum received a call from a local mother hoping to cancel the large order she had placed as a number of daughter's peers hadn't turned up to her birthday party. When the store's supervisor heard the sad news he decided to do something special for the birthday girl. "When she arrived at the store to collect the one pizza, shift supervisor Miles surprised her with a custom chocolate dessert pizza topped with churros & brownies!" Domino's Australia wrote in the Facebook post. Thousands of social media users are praising Miles for his act of kindness and many are trying to find a way to send the child birthday gifts. Domino's expressed its gratitude to Miles for his attempt to cheer the boy up.

This jacket has been at the church since before the pandemic. Our caretaker asked me to put it in the newsletter to see if there would be any thoughts as to whose it might be, and where to contact to see if they could help it find a home. Please let us know if you have an idea.

Thank you!!

A welcome note from a Trinity Grad, Danielle Blerot

I've started my second year at ACC for Medical Administration. It's been going good though this year is a little difficult with learning all the medical terms but as my instructor says "it's a new language."

I've just celebrated my 19th birthday with family and am now planning a get together with my friends, though it's a bit difficult considering we are all in post secondary education.

I'm glad that you have a new member with the choir, and that young, I hope she enjoys it. I've taken a break from choirs and lessons so that I can focus on my education, though I still sing at home whenever I can.

From Editor:

Danielle join the Trinity Choir a few years ago and was a great alto; welcome back any time, Danielle!!

Thank you to the about 120 photo appointments that we have had in the six days we had this month. There is going to be another day(s) in November and am just waiting for a day to become available.

There are still many who have not had their pictures taken and do hope that it will work to have it done on our next day. This directory is only done every five years.

Thank you to the dedicated people who helped with the appointments; Hillary Baker, Winnie Black, Judy Diswinka, Ralph & Carolyn Heard, Helen Hicks, Myrna Lane, June Pedlow, Glenda Penner, Leslie Preston, Irene Smith & Tina Ure.

Thanks, also, to the three gals who phoned about 40 names each!!

Gloria Hill will be working on the roster again; many thanks to all!!

The checkers will be needed soon. Lots of work to do yet. If you have any pics of church functions, please send them. They have to be high pixels.

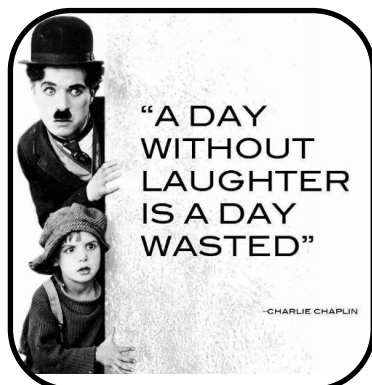

This is a team effort .. Many thanks!
